

Curriculum vitae

Dr. Ahmad Khaled Al-Ali, Minister for Electricity

born 1950 in Homs

1974	Studied electrical engineering at Damascus University
1982	Completed PhD in control engineering, England
1982 – 1984	Worked in England in his specialist field
1974 – 1976	Helped to found the centre for academic research and studies
1984 – 1988	Director for information technology and computers at the Public Establishment for Electricity, Syria
1988 – 1993	Technical advisor to the director-general of the Public Establishment for Electricity, Syria
1993 – 1996	Director for power plant construction at the Public Establishment for Electricity Generation and Transmission
1996 – 1997	Director for management and operation of the Syrian electrical grid
1997 – 2002	Director-general of the Public Establishment for Electricity Generation in Jandar
2002 until appointed Minister of Electricity	Director-general of the Public Establishment for Electricity Generation and Transmission
	Married, one son, two daughters