

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Areg Galstyan

Education
1966-1971	Yerevan State Engineering University. Diploma in Applied Automatic Control Systems in Thermal Engineering.
1973-1976	Moscow Institute of Energy. Postgraduate Study. Doctor of Technical Sciences.
	Research experience in the field of design digital control systems of technological processes, including in thermal and nuclear power plants.
Professional experience
July 2000 until now	Deputy Minister of Energy: responsible for the development issues and international relations, sector policy elaboration, design and negotiation of development programs, sector legislation and institutional reforms.
May 1992 to July 2000	Advisor to Minister of Energy; Head of Technical Policy Department.
1976 to 1992	Yerevan State Engineering University: Deputy Dean and associate professor; Deputy Chairman of thermo-technology and applied automatic control systems.
	Author of about 40 published articles.