

Astrid Klug, Parliamentary State Secretary

Born on 4. February 1968 in Homburg qualified librarian (Diplom-Bibliothekarin)

1987 Abitur (university entrance exam) at Mannlich Gymnasium (grammar school) in Homburg; Library studies in Cologne; 1990 degree in library studies. Worked in the University Library in Saarbrücken; 1992 to 2002 head of the press and public relations office in the Saarpfalz administrative authority

Member of i.a. the National Association for Workers' Welfare (AWO), German Bicycle Club (ADFC), Verkehrsclub Deutschland (German transport club), German Federation for Environment and Nature Conservation (BUND), the aid organisation Deutsche Humanitäre Stiftung, Lebenshilfe Saarpfalz (foundation for the mentally handicapped), Foundation for the Rights of Future Generations (SRzG), Gesellschaft für Nachhaltigkeit (society for sustainable development), Berufsverband Information Bibliothek (library federation)

- |                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| since 1984               | Involved in the environment, peace and anti-nuclear movements                                                                                                                                                             |
| since 1985               | Member of the SPD                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| since 1987Peace Day) | Initiator and organiser of the "Umwelt- und Friedenstages" (Environment and                                                                                                                                               |
| 1994 to 2004             | Member of the Homburg municipal council                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| since 1997               | Member of the Land executive committee of the SPD Saar branch                                                                                                                                                             |
| since 1999               | Chair of the Homburg city branch of the SPD                                                                                                                                                                               |
| since 2000               | Deputy chair of the Land executive committee of the SPD Saar branch                                                                                                                                                       |
| since 2002               | Member of the Bundestag. In the 15th legislative period i.a. member of the Committee on Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety and chair of the parliamentary advisory committee for sustainable development |
| since November 2005      | Parliamentary State Secretary in the Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety                                                                                                         |